

MUSIC

BRISBANE'S Flamingo Crash might be jetting off to Japan but they haven't forgotten when they came from. Before they head, Flamingo Crash will treat their local fans to a taste of their debut album Triangle Island at The Basement on September 8. Tickets at the door.

THE inaugural Shakespeare On Oxford festival rolls into town at Bulimba's Oxford St on September 8-9. Featuring five performances over two days, the festival features local actors Stephen Tandy, Nick Backstrom, Dragitsa Debert, Brett Heath and David Knijnenburg under the direction of Tama Matheson. Phone 3847 1717.

BOMBASTIC Sydney band Faker have returned from the bright lights of Los Angeles and are making their way to The Zoo for one night of popstastic rock on September 7. Sparkadia are the special guests, tickets at the door.

WEST End's Linda Neil has created The New Passion Club, a multimedia show incorporating a live band, visuals and a slide show. The songwriter/musician/writer has coordinated the slide show to go with a piece of her music in her latest work. The New Passion Club is on September 6 at 7.30pm at the Judith Wright Centre at 7.30pm on September 6. Tickets $26-20, phone 3872 9000.
